

BHOC Parking Permit

BHOC offers a parking permit for patients who are receiving regular treatment, or long or delayed treatments that go over 2 hours. This permit is then valid for 7 consecutive days.

1. After parking in our car park: please buy a parking ticket for 2 hours priced at £3.00 from the pay and display machine (price correct at time of printing - February 2010). Clearly display this ticket in your car.
2. Go to main reception on the ground floor and ask the receptionist for a parking permit, giving them the following information:
 - a) that you have displayed your pay and display ticket
 - b) the patient's surname
 - c) the vehicle licence number
3. The receptionist will be able to give you more information about how the parking permit works.

Disabled badge holders can park in our car park free of charge.

Please display your badge clearly on your dashboard

Please note the hospital does not have any facilities to provide change for the parking meters, however we will always do our best to help.

Please do not park in any of the designated consultant spaces, or ambulance bays.

Main reception is open from 8.30am – 5pm. If you need a permit before 8.30am please pick one up at your previous appointment, or speak to a member of staff on arrival.

BHOC Parking Permit

BHOC offers a parking permit for patients who are receiving regular treatment, or long or delayed treatments that go over 2 hours. This permit is then valid for 7 consecutive days.

4. After parking in our car park: please buy a parking ticket for 2 hours priced at £3.00 from the pay and display machine (price correct at time of printing - February 2010). Clearly display this ticket in your car.
5. Go to main reception on the ground floor and ask the receptionist for a parking permit, giving them the following information:
 - d) that you have displayed your pay and display ticket
 - e) the patient's surname
 - f) the vehicle licence number
6. The receptionist will be able to give you more information about how the parking permit works.

Disabled badge holders can park in our car park free of charge.

Please display your badge clearly on your dashboard

Please note the hospital does not have any facilities to provide change for the parking meters, however we will always do our best to help.

Please do not park in any of the designated consultant spaces, or ambulance bays.

Main reception is open from 8.30am – 5pm. If you need a permit before 8.30am please pick one up at your previous appointment, or speak to a member of staff on arrival.