Question (Part A)	Question (Part B)	Answer	Details
Do you use electronic patient record systems for any part of your clinical records? If so, please provide the names of all the systems used and what they are used for?		We utilise a combination of System C - Medway and Kainos - Evolve. Sillin the process of implementing.
Do you use paper notes for any part of your clinical records? If so, please detail what they are used for?		The above has allowed us to go paper-lite, we still utilise some physical notes.
Do you use an electronic system for the majority (>50%) of clinical note-taking for each of these encounters (part B)? If so, please detail the system(s) used; if not, please state if/when you intend to implement an electronic system for these encounters?	Inpatient	A mixed ecenomy of paper and electronic.
	Outpatient	A mixed ecenomy of paper and electronic.
	Maternity	The vast majority of maternity data is entered directly electronically.
	Emergency Department	The vast majority of emergency data is entered directly electronically.
Do you use an electronic system for each of the following purposes (part B)? If so, please detail the system(s) used; if not, please state if/when you intend to implement an electronic system for this purpose?	Documents (such as GP and clinic letters)	Yes. Clinical Document System
	Prescribing drugs	No. Due to go-live very shortly.
	Patient management or administration	Yes. Medway PAS
	Requesting and reviewing results of diagnostic tests (such as blood tests)	Yes. Sunquest ICE.
	Viewing radiological and nuclear imaging	Yes. Insignia.
	Recording and monitoring vital signs (such as temperature, blood pressure)	Not yet. Planned.
How many desktop or portable computers are currently managed by the trust? (An estimate is sufficient)		c. 8,500
Are there desktop or portable computers running Microsoft Windows XP or Microsoft Windows Vista in the trust? If so, please detail how many of each? (An estimate is sufficient)		A mix of Windows 7 and 10. Gradually starting to migrate all across to 10.
Have computers or servers managed by the trust been affected by malware in the last 2 years? If so, please detail the names of the malware involved (such as "Wannacry")?		No

Do you have a policy for selecting Microsoft security updates to be applied? If so, is the policy to apply all security updates or only a subset?		Apply all, post testing.
Have all Microsoft security updates described as "critical" in the past 2 years been applied within 1 month? If not, please detail how many were not applied within this time? (An estimate is sufficient)		Yes.